Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation Patient Assistance Program
* Frequently Asked Questions *

Q: What is the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation?

The Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation was created in memory of 8 year old Hannah who was a normal, healthy child that fell victim to CPVT and died suddenly on May 15, 2005. The mission of the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation is to raise funds for CPVT heart arrhythmia research through the Mayo Clinic, to build awareness of heart arrhythmia disorders such as CPVT and to fund (2) college scholarships for graduating High School Seniors from Strongsville, Ohio who plan to major in education.

Q: Who is eligible to apply for assistance?

Patients with a suspected diagnosis of CPVT who either do not have insurance coverage, have been denied coverage by their insurance provider or have partial coverage from their insurance provider and will incur out-of-pocket costs associated with the FAMILION CPVT Test. Applicants must meet specific criteria listed on the welcome letter.

Q: Are there any age limitations?

Yes, the recipient of the FAMILION CPVT test must be 19 years of age or under.

Q: What is the application process?

First, the patient (or parent/guardian) must request an application from the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation for the Patient Assistance Program. Once the application form is completed and returned to the Foundation, it is reviewed and a decision is rendered within 5 business days.

Q: Who will receive the payment from the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation?

Payment from the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation will be sent directly from the Foundation to PGxHealth, the provider of the FAMILION CPVT Test. Payments will be applied to your account upon receipt.
