Dear Requester:

Thank you for your interest in the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation Patient Assistance Program. With support from Rite Aid, this non-profit Foundation has designed a program to provide financial support for patient's with a suspected diagnosis of Catecholaminergic Polymorphic Ventricular Tachycardia (CPVT) and who either do not have insurance or whose insurance company will cover a portion of the testing cost or has denied coverage for the FAMILION CPVT Test. Assistance is provided in the form of partial payment for patients with specific documented out-of-pocket costs associated with genetic testing for CPVT.

Enclosed are the program materials you have requested. Applications must be completed by the patient (or parent/legal guardian) and mailed to the Hannah Wernke Memorial Foundation.

If you meet the guidelines below, please complete and return the enclosed application.

* Eligibility Criteria *

- Patient must have a suspected diagnosis of CPVT
- Patient must be 19 years of age or under
- FAMILION CPVT index testing only (the patient must be the first person in the family to be tested using the complete FAMILION CPVT Test. FAMILION Family Specific testing for subsequent family members will not meet the eligibility criteria)
- Patient must have out-of-pocket costs associated with genetic testing (please note - maximum patient assistance contribution per patient may be up to 80% of the patient's out of pocket cost)
- Patient (or parent/guardian) must be willing to share their name and test results with the Hannah Wernke Foundation as well as complete a brief survey following the completion of testing.

Completed applications should be mailed, E-mailed or faxed to:
